About Us

We are a statewide coalition of individuals and organizations working together toward the elimination of sexual violence and advocating for sexual assault victims' rights.

Our Vision

We envision a world free of sexual violence in which together we assure that all human beings are treated with dignity and respect for their physical, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual integrity.

Silent Auction

Please consider a donation or sponsorship of our event this year. Our event is a great opportunity to highlight your business services or goods and reach potential new customers! All donations will be noted with your business name in promotional materials.
